

ONENESS: TEAMS

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- ❖ Recognize that the fullness of Christ requires the participation of many.
- ❖ How to cooperate with one another's strengths and weaknesses.
- ❖ How to operate in oneness corporately (one heart, one mind, one soul).
- ❖ How to express the image of God in community.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION:

Week 1) Luke 10:1-29

Week 2) Luke 22:24-53

Week 3) Acts 4

Week 4) Ephesians 3:14-21, Romans 12:3-8

TRIAD QUESTIONS:

WEEK 1

1. Considering your current age and stage, what is your highest priority?
2. How do you participate individually in seeing the Kingdom come to earth? How do you participate corporately in seeing the Kingdom come to earth?
3. What roles are necessary to develop a good team?
4. How do you describe “best thinking practices”, and what do you expect to occur when a team engages in this way? What do you (personally) have to do to operate in the best thinking with others?

WEEK 2

1. Who are you accountable to—and what does that look like? Are there any areas of your life where you are unwilling to be accountable?
2. Have you ever been on a team that became dysfunctional? What happened?
3. When are you tempted to ‘shut down’, withdraw, or withhold your gifts in a gathering?
4. When you consider your Kingdom assignments—what other gifts need to be functioning well for yours to be fully released?
5. Do you see anyone in the scriptures who had a difficult time believing they were loved? What does this lead to

WEEK 3

1. With whom do you practice the ‘one anothers’ on a monthly, weekly, and daily basis?
2. Is leadership a gift, calling, responsibility, or duty? Why?
3. What qualities are most valuable for creating a team?
4. What qualities are necessary to sustain a team?

WEEK 4

1. What are some kingdom ways that you have learned by observing sports teams?
2. What qualities does the world value in a team member? How does that differ in the kingdom?
3. Have you functioned on a team that ‘accomplished’ the ‘mission’ they set out to do?
4. Do you have a vision statement or unique identity that influences the choices you make? When and how do you review this statement?
5. Do you tend to gather with your same age group or cross-generationally?
